

57th Episkopi Scouts A Step in The Dark

"Hello, is that you?"

On Tuesday 22nd December the 57th Episkopi Scouts went on a night hike. The route took us along the road to Salamanca Barracks. From there we headed down the valley on the footpath leading towards the deserted village of Symvoulos. The going wasn't easy but the moon shone bright enough to get by without torches for most of the time. After a dodgy crossing of the stream (Well, have you tried it at night?) we made our way to Symvoulos. Following some gentle persuasion everyone assembled in the dark, torches off, for a photo call. Then it was back on the track towards Happy Valley. Thanks must go to the Scouts for their good behaviour on the night, to John Robinson for coming along to help, and to Zoe Joss for meeting us at the Scout Campsite with some delicious soup!

Article & Photo
Russ Pearce